

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 12, 1904.

CHAPTER 597.

AN ACT to incorporate the town of Hillsboro, Caroline County, Maryland.

Creating Hillsboro,
Caroline
County a body corporate.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the inhabitants of the town of Hillsboro, in Caroline County, be and they are hereby created a body corporate by the name of the Commission of Hillsboro, with all the powers and privileges of a body politic and corporate, and by said corporate name may have perpetual succession, and by that name may sue and be sued, may purchase and hold real, personal and mixed property, or dispose of the same for the benefit of said town, and may have and use a common seal, which may be altered at pleasure; the said corporation may organize, proceed and act through its commissioners to be selected as hereinafter provided.

Rights of corporation.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That said corporation may receive in trust, and may control for the purpose of such trusts, all money or other property which may be bestowed upon such corporation by will, deed or in any other form of gift or conveyance, for any general corporation purpose, or in aid of the indigent and poor, or for charitable purposes with said village; and the said corporation may lease or otherwise dispose of any property which may be hereafter acquired by said village, having first given public notice of such lease or sale in one or more of the newspapers printed in Caroline County once a week for three successive weeks before such lease or sale.

Boundaries.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the boundaries and limits of said town shall be as follows, to wit: Beginning at the foot of the east side of Tuckahoe bridge along the meanderings of the Tuckahoe river at mean high water mark south to a place to be fixed and marked by the Commissioners first elected on the land of the heirs of the late James W. Holt, about or opposite the division line of the Protestant Episcopal Church lot and the said Holt lands and that of the lots of Thomas B. Sparklin, east, until it intersects the Tuckahoe Neck public road on the west side; thence along the west side of the said road north to a point to be fixed and marked on the land of
